Valuation Certificate

Item: Ellgreave Pottery Tea Service

Valuation: £10 to £15
Valuation date: 19th September 2013
Valued in:

Category:	Ceramics and Porcelain
Country of origin:	Burslem, Staffordshire
Artist / Maker:	Unknown
Condition of piece:	Excellent
Year of manufacture:	circa 1950
Materials used:	Pottery

A charming little three piece pottery teaset made by Ellgreave in Burslem, Staffordshire. In an original fitted box from the 'Heatmaster' range. With gilt decoration and applied transfer prints of flowers. In general hand painted decoration is more valued than the transfer printed decoration used on this example. The Ellgreave Pottery Co. was founded in 1921 by Wood & Sons. They specialised in producing low cost decorative domestic pieces and are most known the for the brightly coloured Mr Pig piggy banks.

Teasets like this are today not very sought after and subsequently fetch low prices at auction. It is nice to see that the original box in still present though, and the teaset appears to be in good condition.

Valuation Certificate

Valuation Certificate

Abridged Terms and Conditions of the Valuation Certificate. For full details please see http://cashintheattic.com/terms-conditions

• Cash in the Attic is an independent commercial business and this site and the services provided are NOT OWNED, OPERATED OR CONTROLLED BY THE BBC.

• The concept is derived from the television format of the same name produced for the BBC by Leopard Films, an independent production company owned by Argonon Limited. Whilst the television show is commissioned by and shown on the BBC, all commercial rights necessary to provide this site and service under the same title are retained by Argonon. Whilst the BBC does not endorse or otherwise have any connection with the site or services, it has approved the use of the brand in relation to the site and services.

• When you submit an Item for Valuation, our Valuers conduct the Valuation assuming that the Item is being sold on the date the Valuation Certificate is issued, on an open market, at an international auction with a reputable auctioneer and without a reserve. Any Valuation made by our Valuers will rely on any photos, videos and descriptions you submit as well as your representations and warranties. All Valuations are estimates or opinions and are not statements of fact and cannot be relied on as a guarantee of an Item's value.

• Our Valuers are carefully selected experts in their field, are independently contracted and have all signed up to and agree with our Code of Conduct. Our Valuers are not employed by the BBC nor do they represent the BBC in any capacity. You can learn more about our Valuers from their profiles on our Site.

• Your Valuation Certificate is evidence of the Valuer's estimate of your Item's value. A Valuation Certificate is evidence only of the Valuer's opinion.

• Any personal data of yours collected via the Valuation Service will be used in accordance with our Privacy Policy (see http://cashintheattic.com/privacycookies)